COUNTRY TOWNS ASSOCIATION EXTENDS WORK

Discuss Closer Co-operation of Suburban Police Depts.

The executive committee of the Suburban Area and Country Towns Association of Cook county at its meeting in the Palmer House, Chicago, took up the question of the costs of the various phases of government per capita in the suburban towns from the reports which have been coming in to the association.

Some of the reports were discussed and it was decided that after the completion of the compilation of all the reports the cross grain of these or the average cost as compared with the cost of the city of Chicago will be made public.

Regional Cooperation Considered

The matter of a regional police power or the cooperation of the various police departments so that all the police facilities of the suburban towns would be available at whatever point in the county they were needed was discussed and the question was referred to the Public Relations committee, Mayor Frank Kasten of Blue Island, chairman, for investigation and report to the executive committee for final action at the meeting next week.

The committee also proceeded with the details of the extension of its activities through committees to all matters which might be of concern to individual communities and where cooperation would be advisable.

The number of civic groups in various sections of the suburban area who have expressed a desire to cooperate with the association has been reported as very gratifying and the committee plans to find means for these various groups to render a co-operative service for the furtherance of its aims.

Mayor H. W. Tolsted of Maywood, who was one of the initial founders of the movement to preserve Home Rule for the Suburban communities, addressed the group which included a number of representative citizens and officials from different communities in the county. He said in part:

Tried to Step It Over

"There are two features of the Metropolitan district legislation that were particularly distasteful to the devotees of Home Rule on purely local affairs. "The first is the fact that, under the measure as presented, the district would have been set up had the legislature passed the last session of the legislature, whether or not the municipalities and their citizens concurred in the proposal. In fact, there was no proposal for submission of the question to the voters of Cook county municipalities."

Chicagoans Would Govern Country Towns

"The second is the fact that under the structure of the government of the proposed metropolitan district three members would have been selected from the city of Chicago in addition to the mayor of Chicago who would be the head of the metropolitan council. The rest of Cook county was allowed but two members of the council and the other member of the board was to be president of the County Board of Commissioners. In most instances this would have given the city of Chicago five members against two of the remainder of Cook county."

No Desire to Be Lost in Chicago

"The City of Chicago would comprise the majority of the district in population and perhaps from this standpoint should have the larger representation on the council. But the proportions are thought by the country towns representatives to throw too much power to the city of Chicago. The other municipalities of Cook county do not desire to become a part of the city of Chicago by whatever name the body uniting them with the city may be termed."

"There are more reasons than representation and taxation for the hesitancy on the part of residents outside of Chicago to look with misgivings on the metropolitan area plan. Chief among these is the proposal to set up a metropolitan police force and to do away with the local police who are now residing in the territory they protect and in many instances are direct taxpayers of these communities. As members of the communities the local police are under the control of the local authorities and are more familiar with the conditions desired and more directly personally interested in keeping their community as the proper place to live and rear their families."

"Another proposal is the creation of a metropolitan control of all public works. The individual service that is rendered by residents of suburban towns to their fellow townsmen and here, too, their understanding of the conditions and surroundings leads the citizens to look with disfavor on any change here."

Not Opposed to Efficiency

"The Suburban Area and Country Towns Association does not set itself up as an organization which is opposed to any plan that will work for greater efficiency at a re-

OUR DEBT TO CHICAGO

Cook County has a population of three million nine hundred eighty-two thousand, one hundred twenty-eight; these people are within the limits of the city of Chicago. There can be no question that Chicago is a large part of Cook county. Furthermore, there can be no question that the City of Chicago exercises a great influence over the commercial and civic life of Cook county. It provides a market for raw products, and in normal times, employment for thousands of Cook county residents who live without its boundaries. Rapid transportation has brought the advantages of metropolitan life within easy reach of all residents of Cook county. In addition to the advantage of purchasing in large and varied markets the suburbanite has access to Chicago's parks, her theatres, museums, libraries, and even to her clubs and churches. There are many advantages to living near Chicago.

But the matter is not wholly one-sided. These same suburbanites contribute much to the City of Chicago; both in money and service. Many of the business and professional men of Chicago live without the city limits and many of the citizens of Chicago find their recreation in the more rural sections of the county. Some of the evils of the city protrude their hideous tentacles beyond the city limits and into all parts of Cook county. In the past, Chicago has offered to the suburbanite whose business was located in the city no voice in matters of city government nor has she sought his opinions in determining her policies. She was self-satisfied, exultant, and a bit boastful. "Nothing can stop Chicago now," became her slogan. But something did stop her. Her own reckless extravagance, and her questionable political practices have brought her face to face with serious difficulties. Today she reaches out through proposed legislation and says, "The interest of Cook county and Chicago can not be separated."

Help us through the Metropolitan District Bill to combine our efforts and unify our policies. Chicago is too large a part of Cook county not to consider her own interests ahead of the interests of the suburban areas of the county. The Metropolitan area may owe something to Chicago, but it does not owe everything. If the economy and efficiency with which Chicago has handled her own affairs in the past two decades is to be the standard by which to judge her future policies in directing the affairs of the Metropolitan District, the disadvantages far outweigh the advantages.

duction of the cost of such service. It is for the present content to study all proposals made, ever mindful of the fact that Home Rule must be preserved on matters of purely local concern regardless of cost. It does not propose to relinquish any of the rights the municipalities now have over any of the matters which metropolitan plans seek to take away without such proposals having first been submitted to a vote of the citizens whose rights are to be usurped."

"The report submitted to the Illinois Commission on Taxation and Expenditures by Griffenhagen & Associates styled as 'specialists in public administration and finance' November 30, 1932, will be discussed by the various leaders of municipalities in Cook county at a meeting of Chicago from time to time, so that the general public may learn the facts concerning the proposals of this report."

"The commission in question was created by an Act of the General Assembly passed June 29, 1931."

Other "Points"

"Elmer J. Schnackenberg, chairman of the committee on Local Government of the Commission, and himself a member of the General Assembly, on Saturday, Jan. 14, delivered an address before the Illinois League of Women Voters, during the course of which he presented seventeen points which, he said, his committee planned to recommend for action by the session of the General Assembly with the reasonable hope that the committee would secure the approval of the state legislature."

"In discussing the school situation, Mr. Schnackenberg said that there were 1,285 school districts in the state and the committee planned to recommend that these districts be reduced in number by consolidation and to include high school and grade schools in the same districts."

"The thirteenth point proposed was the metropolitan police system for the entire area of Cook county. The fourteenth point was the creation of a bureau of water supply. The fifteenth point not so clearly defined in his address, was a proposed metropolitan bureau of sanitation, and the sixteenth point was the consolidation of the Forest Park district with the three city districts now existing in the Suburban Area and Country Towns Association of Cook county."

Law offices have been opened in Chicago by Oscar E. Carlstrom, who has just retired as attorney general of the state of Illinois.

SEX EDUCATION ADVICE GIVEN BEFORE GROUPS

Palatine Alumni Sponsor Talks by Medical Educator

Last fall when the Board of Managers of the Palatine Alumni association planned the monthly activities for the year, the suggestion was made that a series of lectures and discussions on the subject of Sex Education be included in the program.

Too often today is heard the hue and cry of the adult world bemoaning the ill-chosen paths of the adolescents. Too many heads are shaken; too many shoulders shrugged.

The Alumni chose a more explicit means of trying to improve the situation. They secured as a speaker one of the outstanding lecturers and advisers in the field of Sex Education, LeMon Clark, of Rush Medical college, formerly a teacher in an eastern university and on the staff of the Illinois Social Hygiene League.

Last fall Mr. Clark spoke to the girls and to the boys of the high school, and at an evening meeting discussed "The Part of a Parent in Sex Education" before a group of married people.

On Tuesday, Jan. 24, Mr. Clark returned to Palatine and conducted an interesting and helpful forum with the two high school groups. In the evening the discussion of "Sex and Its Importance in Life" was held before unmarried members and friends of the Alumni.

So straight-forward is Mr. Clark's attitude, so removed are his talks from anything sensational or extremely done, he treats his subject, that the effect is a wholesome one. His premise is that most young people have an attitude rather than factual information on the subject of sex and that this attitude is either taught or caught from the reaction of their parents.

He feels that the attitude on moral issues of an adolescent is definitely established by the time he was five or six years of age. He stresses the importance of parents giving straight-forward, reliable, unbiased, trustworthy information to their children before the subject can be turned into a lurid mystery to pique the curiosity. He considers an accurate decent scientific vocabulary of prime importance.

In the opinion of many, further occasion for hearing Mr. Clark should be provided the young people of Palatine. The effects of his talks are too wholesome to be foregone.

Dinner-Concert Monday to Boost "Temple of Music"

Oscar C. Kurtz represented the Palatine Lions club at a luncheon given Monday at the Chicago club in the interior of the Drake Hotel to provide a Temple of Music at the Century of Progress. Plans were laid for a great informal dinner to take place at the Drake Hotel next Monday, Jan. 30, where details of the project will be made public.

Since Frederick Stock emphasized the fact that music was not yet provided for at the Century of Progress, public spirited citizens including Russell Tyson, Chauncey McCormick, Mrs. Walter Jordan and Mr. Stock formed the "Friends of Music" corporation to raise $100,000 to erect the building. Subscriptions of one dollar are to be sought.

Music lovers in Palatine will be interested to know that the Drake Hotel is to serve its regular two dollar dinner for one dollar, and that they will see and hear Frederick Stock and his 30-piece symphony orchestra, including a quartet in which Mr. Stock himself will take part. Janet Fairbanks and Rudolph Ganz will be soloists. Rev. Preston Bradley, who has been actively interested in the Temple movement, will speak.

As only 1,500 dinner guests can be accommodated, it is asked by Mr. John McKeown, executive director of the corporation, that reservations be made not later than Monday morning and that the plate fee of one dollar be paid in advance. Reservations to the dinner-concert can be made direct to Mr. McKeown at 1024 Monroe Building, Monroe and Michigan, Chicago.

Dr. Lee Elected Head of Boy Scout Parents at Mount Prospect

Officers were elected by the Parents' Auxiliary of Boy Scout troop No. 23 at a meeting held Tuesday night in the Community hall. A constitution and by-laws were adopted last November, several months after the organization was formed and the new officers are the first to serve.

Dr. Judson F. Lee was elected president; Mrs. Ray Salzman, vice president; Mrs. Bidings, secretary and T. A. Thomson, treasurer. This was the first annual meeting, as well as election of officers, to be held by the new organization.

20th Amendment Adopted, To Trim Rule by Defeated

The Twentieth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States was adopted officially last Monday when the State legislature of Missouri became the 36th to ratify it. The amendment becomes effective Oct. 15 next.

Section 1 provides that "The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, and the terms of Senators and Representatives at noon on the 3rd day of January, of the years in which such terms would have ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin."

Section 2 is that "The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall begin at noon on the 3d day of January, unless they shall by law appoint a different day."

Section 3 provides that in case a president-elect shall die before Jan. 20, then the vice president shall become president; or in case the president-elect shall not qualify, or no president shall have been chosen, then the vice president-elect shall act as president until there is a president elected and qualified.

This amendment is a modernization of the former provisions adopted when all news and travel had to be by horseback and stage coach, and months were required for full election returns to be certified and gotten around, and for candidates elected to get to Washington. The amendment will largely eliminate the power over legislation and administration of those defeated for reelection.

The political independent, Senator George Norris of Nebraska, had worked persistently the last ten years for this Amendment. In a statement Monday he said:

"The enactment of this amendment is a great step toward putting the control of our government in the hands of the chosen representatives of the American people."

Arlington Board Holds a Special Two-Hour Session

The Arlington Heights village board, with auditor E. F. Laurin, Attorney Thal and Mr. Hollenbeck, held a special two-hour session Monday evening to discuss a number of matters but adjourned with very little definite action being taken.

Some time was spent discussing the condition of special assessment funds in which there appear to be discrepancies between the receipts held by property owners and credits shown on the books. Mr. Hollenbeck had a few complaints in reference to manner in which some special assessment funds had been handled.

A party in honor of the freshman class of the Arlington Heights High School was held Saturday evening by the juniors in the gymnasium, and was attended by about 150 persons.

There were games and peanut, potato and popskicle relay races with prizes. Special stunts were "The Gathering of the Nuts," in which freshmen were characters; and a scene, "The Railway Station" with the following cast: Hiram, Harold Koelling; Mirandy, Louise Roth; Station Agent, Frank Szasz.

Old-fashioned clothes were worn in the costume play. Prizes were won by Eunice Ivers and Warren Edwards.

Dancing was to a six-piece orchestra, including Wallace Bolte of the school at the piano, and Geo. Minneberger of Palatine, saxophone.

Music for dancing will be by the very capable Lions Club orchestra. Special acts will be announced in the next issue of this paper.

The need for relief is insistent and widespread, and the Lions are glad to provide the public with a very good time and at the same time help this very needy and worthy cause.

Rebuild Rocky Gulch For Days of '49 at Arlington Heights

The Ford garage at Arlington Heights, is rapidly taking on the appearance of an old frontier town during the days of the famous gold rush of 1849. The town of Rocky Gulch is reproduced here in all its glory, including the famous old dance hall, the Rocky Gulch Bar and the general store, the covered wagon, the Indian Fortune Tellers' Teepee and many other points of interest which play an important part in this town of Rocky Gulch, as during those historic days when the west was in the making. Sheriff Wild Bill Hickok will be on hand at all times to see that law and order is preserved at any cost. The good old calaboose will be close at hand to store away anybody who wants to test the efficiency of the sheriff.

You have all heard a lot of talk about deflation of the currency. And if you want to see how it works in actual practice, just come to Rocky Gulch and you will have your chance, because the currency of Rocky Gulch will be as plentiful as anyone can be a millionaire for at least one night.

California Ike and his Musical Prospectors will furnish the music for the dancers and they are as hot as the Nevada desert.

The general admission to the town is only thirteen cents or two for a quarter and you can have a barrel of fun without spending another cent if you wish to.

Gardeners' Supply Undersells Sears In Insecticides

The Gardeners' Supply, which was originally organized by the Cook County Farm Bureau, has become one of the largest distributors of certain materials used by truck gardeners until it occupies a commanding position in the Chicago district and thru quantity purchase, is able to undersell practically all competitors, not excepting the mail order houses. As a striking instance of the latter, the latest Sears catalogue quotes arsenate of lead in four pound packages at 79c. The Gardeners' Supply sells it at 55c. The same is true of practically all insecticides.

Mr. Jos. Zinkmund, manager, says that there are two reasons for his company, "First, educational and second, service. Showing the truck gardeners and farmers the best kind of insecticides to be used for various crops, does not complete our job. We must make it possible for the truck gardeners to get these insecticides at a price where they can afford to use it. That is what we are attempting to do."

The 1933 24-page price list and catalogue is being mailed to farm bureau members this week. Aside from giving prices on seeds it also has a special department devoted to insecticides, giving methods of application, the kind and the price per acre.

It is getting so that a farmer and a truck gardener who wants to succeed, can not help from joining the farm bureau and utilizing the facilities of the Gardeners' Supply. The latter company has offices and store houses at both Blue Island and Arlington Heights.

Do your buying in Arlington Heights is the new slogan adopted this week throughout the business district of Arlington Heights. "Buy Arlington" will soon meet the eye of every resident and visitors that come there to trade.

Suggested as a part of the "Buy American" campaign that is gaining headway through the country, the "Buy Arlington," is looked upon as a popular movement that will gain rapidly and stimulate business in all stores. The Hartman Shoe store was the first to adopt the slogan, which appears in their advertisement this week. Watch next week's Herald for all the details. "Buy Arlington" and help end the depression in Arlington Heights.

First Semester Ends This Week; Attendance Good

The Arlington Heights Township High School will close the first semester of the 1932-33 school year, Friday of this week. In spite of the late opening the pupils for the most part have covered approximately the same amount of work as in former years.

The school year opened September 19 with an enrollment of 373, distributed as follows:

Seniors 61
Juniors 78
Sophomores 98
Freshmen 140

The first semester closed with 368 enrolled, a net loss of only five pupils. The senior class lost none, the junior class one, the sophomore class four, and the freshman class gained two.

The average daily attendance for the first four months was 361—27%. This is a very satisfactory showing especially with the illness which existed in December and January. One hundred three pupils have not been absent a single time and seventy-two others have been absent only one day or less. For the past seventy-eight days of school there were three hundred thirteen cases of tardiness or an average of four per day. One pupil was responsible for twenty-six cases of tardiness and four others accounted for ten or more each. On the whole, the attendance has been unusually good.

To Organize Scout Troop In Wheeling

Friday evening, Jan. 27, a meeting of all interested in forming a Boy Scout troop in Wheeling and vicinity will be held at the Presbyterian church, at 7:30 p. m. Mr. John Barrett has consented to be the chairman of the Troop committee, and is directly responsible for taking the initiative in this most laudable undertaking.

The boys who will join the troop will be pleased to know that Mr. Marshall Balling, cashier of the Wheeling Bank, will be the Scoutmaster, and that there will be a full troop committee composed of the leading men of the community, whose names will be announced later. Mr. Elwood, instructor at Crane Farm, will assist Scoutmaster Balling, and also bring about 12 of his boys to join the troop. Rev. Leslie Shaw is cooperating in every way and has consented to serve as advisor on the Troop committee. Mr. C. O. Nimitz, scout executive of the Northwest Suburban Council, is in charge of the organization details.

Income Tax Assistance May Be Had Locally

Howard W. Brown, of Arlington Heights is announcing this week the availability of his services as an Income Tax Accountant.

Service of this nature in Arlington Heights has heretofore been rendered to some extent by the local banks, but now in view of the fact that Arlington Heights has no operating banks, Mr. Brown offers his services for counsel and assistance in the filing of individual returns, partnership returns, corporate returns, and income tax returns for farmers.

He may be consulted Saturday evenings at the real estate office of Krause and Kehe, 1 East Campbell street, telephone Arlington Heights 262; or week day evenings at his home, 624 North Highland avenue, telephone Arlington Heights 54-W.

Mr. Brown is more than adequately trained to render this service and has been engaged as an accountant since 1931 when he received his degree in accounting from the University of Illinois. He is thoroughly acquainted with the new provisions of the Income Tax Law as recently passed by Congress.

Among the changes, the new law will require people to file an income tax return for 1932 who were exempt from filing heretofore. The law provides that all persons shall file who have:

1. A net income of $1,000.00 if single or if married, and not living with husband or wife.
2. A net income of $2,500.00 if married or the head of a family.
3. A gross income of $5,000.00.

"MESSIAH" CHARMS BIG AUDIENCE

Community Chorus Out- does Previous Perform- ances; To Continue

Surpassing all expectations, Arlington Heights, and vicinity were greatly honored last Thursday evening by a great performance of "The Messiah" by their own Community Chorus under the direction of Mr. Theodore Miltzer, and aided by five superb soloists. A very good crowd attended from Arlington Heights, Palatine, Mount Prospect, Northbrook, Park Ridge, Irving Park. All expenses are met. This is the third season of the Choral Society, and never was enthusiasm greater.

It was freely expressed that people could hardly realize they were actually hearing such a great musical performance in their home town. Especially remarkable was the excellent action of the chorus; people were able to hear every word. The singing was very well done—they kept together excellently, and the effects were grand.

Two choruses which directors are usually loath to tackle, were given: "And he will purify the sons of Levi," and "Let Us Break Their Bonds Asunder." Both went off very well. The "Hallelujah" chorus went over in a big way, so important in the Messiah, Miss Ruth Bassett of Chicago sang with her usual soft brilliance and ease of tone production, flexibility of voice and sweetness of interpretation. Miss Marie Barova of Sinai Temple, control, had not so much to do, but she sang with fine voice with wonderful expression, Eugene Dressler, famous tenor, sang beautifully with extraordinary ease on what is probably the most difficult, though little known, of any solos in "The Messiah." John Macdonald, bass, took the house by storm, especially in the solo, "Why Do the Nations So Furiously Rage Together." His magnificent voice and excellent stage presence and delivery were greatly admired; the bass part in the Messiah is so impressive as to give a soloist full scope to show what he can do. Miss Mercie Heise, of Palatine, accompanying all soloists and chorus as well as playing the overture and "Pastoral Symphony," was on time and right with them, an extraordinary feat.

The effect on the audience and all was like a great church service. Perfect and appreciative attention was given throughout. All were very happy. It was agreed that this performance even considerably surpassed the great performance of "The Creation" March 11, 1932, showing the value of keeping at it year by year.

This is the third season of the Community Chorus, a permanent and growing institution. Other appearances will ensue this year; and Mendelssohn's immensely dramatic and brilliant "Elijah" is being thought of as the next major work to be given. Rehearsals are Monday nights at the Arlington Heights High School.

The Community Chorus had its inception from an editorial in the Arlington Heights Herald. The time was right, as subsequent results have proved. The idea spread; individuals took the initiative. Mr. Theodore Miltzer, an old resident of Arlington Heights, but known as a leader in music in the middle west, was pleased to serve his home community by answering the invitation to become musical director of the chorus. In so doing, he has rendered a distinguished service that will become more apparent through the years.

Such music does not only entertain, it educates, it does more—it makes people better whether they realize it or not. Greater attention to the real, higher values is the good coming out of the economic readjustment.

Maccabees' Charter Open in Arlington

The Maccabees, a legal reserve fraternal benefit association, have sent to Arlington Heights and vicinity, two of their deputies to organize a ten, hive and court. W. Howard of Chicago, a fraternalist and an insurance expert, is paying the way for John K. Eardley, well known in this district, to take complete charge of this district.

"There are many benefits to derive from being a member of such a mammoth fraternal organization as the Maccabees; namely: Legal reserve life insurance benefits issued in $500 amounts to $100,000 on any one life, income disability and double indemnity features added if required. Cash values, paid up values and extended insurance after three years, which is optional, dividends payable to its members after the second year.

"The fraternal spirit is needed in Arlington Heights. Now that the charter of the

The Parent Auxiliary of the Boy Scouts were delightfully entertained in the home of Mrs. A. T. Chadley Wednesday this week. Regular routine business was passed upon. The members are busily at work on crocheted blocks for an Afghan from which they hope to obtain a goodly sum for the Scouts' budget.

The family of Mr. Henry Metz, was sadly broken this last week by the sudden death of Mr. Louis Metz, his brother who was ill, but a brief day. In the Henry Metz home is his father, Mr. Carl Metz, who has passed his 90th year, besides his wife and children. The death of Mr. Louis Metz was a shock to the household and his many friends.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munch had added to their sorrow in the sudden death of their baby son, the unkind weather conditions deprived them Saturday of the comforting presence of their parents and other near friends in their hours of deepest grief. The fog so dense rendered travel impossible at the time.

The Arlington Heights Public Health committee met Wednesday night at the health center.

OBITUARY

LOUIS METZ

Louis Metz, who resided with the family of his brother, Mr. Henry Metz, 626 N. Chestnut avenue, Arlington Heights, passed away early Saturday morning at the home. He was aged 60 years. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Karstens Funeral Home, thence to St. Peter Ev. Lutheran church, Rev. C. M. Noack and Rev. H. C. Fricke officiating; interment in St. Peter's cemetery. Louis Metz was born at Niles, Ill., Nov. 10, 1872; was baptized Dec. 25, 1872, at Niles by Rev. Loebner, was confirmed April 3, 1887, at Glenview, by Rev. Wehrs. He always made his home with his parents up to 8 years ago, at which time his mother passed away; from that time on he has made his home with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metz. He leaves to mourn his father, Mr. Carl Metz, of Arlington Heights; one sister, Mrs. Lena Dorand of Evanston; three brothers; Charles Metz of Northbrook, Fred and Henry Metz of Arlington Heights; three sisters-in-law; four nieces; ten nephews.

Passed Away Suddenly

Edward J. son of Frank and Anna Munch, died suddenly in his parents' home on N. Belmont avenue at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, Jan. 21. He was born April 30, 1931. The little one's illness was brief and agonizing to his parents who were helpless to save his life.

The funeral was held at 1:00 o'clock Tuesday from the home to St. James church, where the service of the child's blessing was held. The interment was in St. Boniface cemetery at Chicago, where Rev. Wagner of the home parish and Rev. Freeman of St. Boniface conducted the sacred burial rites.

The deeply bereft ones in the home are the father and mother, Frank, Jr., brother, and Marilyn, his sister. To Mr. and Mrs. Munch this overwhelming affliction has been doubly severe, because they are to so many of us, comparative strangers, yet they do express sincere appreciation for the kindness and assistance of their newer friends and neighbors. We are all brothers in time of sorrow and bereavement.

God took their tender little flower from the storms and snares of earth to bloom in his gardens above where no sin or sorrow ever blight the soul.

The King went forth in his garden, Alone at the close of the day; He gathered your pure white flower And tenderly bore it away.

Miss Russell spoke on Parents' part in home cooperation with the teachers' work in the school. Her remarks were earnest protests in regard to a too often neglect in this all important duty of parents in the home. It would be well if Miss Russell's much needed timely remarks on this subject could be repeated. Yea published that all parents might hear and meditate on their part in the child's future.

Mrs. Jarvis, in her usual enthusiastic winning manner, said she was more and more convinced of the parent's part in cooperating with teachers in preparing their children for the school and for the larger problems of life. She gave interesting quotations from a lecture she heard in a recent convention in the city. All suggestive and to the point, impossible to give in this sketch.

Mrs. Daniels spoke on "The Budget for the Home." She quoted from books on the subject obtained from our High School library. Of her own experience she gave some humorous attempts described in her own happy manner. The talks were helpful and many helpful suggestions will be treasured by these so entertained.

AMERICAN LEGION

Mr. and Mrs. Ansil Merry moved Monday from South Walnut street to a Landmeier apartment.

Merle Guild Post News

National Commander Louis Johnson sent us a letter of congratulation for our membership record and stated that he is sending us a certificate for meritorious service. Believe me, our Commander was proud to read it. Yes, we are keeping up the good work witness the members admitted last Tuesday: Harley Easton, Charles Page, Jos. Hinsberger, Albin Wiberg, A. M. Conger and E. F. Laurin.

Comrade Prosser gave us a bound copy of all issues of Stars and Stripes. Thanks Comrade, all of us will enjoy reading it.

Before the meeting closed our commander, Bill Bockmeyer, sprung the surprise of the evening—a Pot of Gold—and gold you know is money in all languages and at all times. You have to be there to win and poor old Scotchman Zander's name was drawn and he was absent—accept our sympathy.

Gordon—tough. A pot of gold sounds and is good—we'll tell you more about this, but better still show up at the next meeting and find out about this mysterious "Pot of Gold" and don't forget "Gold" is dough in any tongue.

After the meeting the Baron fed us and Bill Bockmeyer ran off six reels of film—an air trip from the Pacific to the Atlantic. A Pot of Gold.

At the next meeting of the Merle Guild auxiliary, Tuesday, Feb. 7, the subject will be "Memberships."

The guest of honor will be Mrs. R. L. Lloyd, president of the Cook County Council. There will be a speaker from the Cook County Council; also music and refreshments. Mrs. Tom Pope, national defense chairman, will be in charge of the program.

The women of the community eligible to membership are cordially invited to attend. The auxiliary needs all the old members as well as new. Our great work for patriotism is well begun but by no means finished. Help us carry on.

Charity Basketball Games and Program
All Round Success

By G. A. GLOW
The local Relief committee and the St. Vincent DePaul society of St. James Parish wish to express their sincere thanks to all those who contributed in any way towards making so successful the Charity Basketball games and program of Jan. 14. They are especially grateful to coach Jim Kelly for bringing to Arlington Heights his basketball team (and what a team it was) and also to Father Vincent Cooke of St. Mary's Training School for sending over his flashy team of lightweights.

Local color and enthusiastic spirit was added to the occasion by the Lions club orchestra, the High School band, St. Cecilia's Choral club, the Drum and Bugle corps of the Merle Guild Post of the American Legion and the Hawaiian Trio.
Approximately 145 bags of delicious homemade candy were donated by members of the Ladies' auxiliary of the American Legion, the Friendly class of the Presbyterian church, the Catholic Ladies' club of Mt. Prospect, the Ideal club of St. James' Parish, and a number of individuals. With George Kost acting as Commissioner of Weights and Measures, it was all placed in bags and under his leadership as sales manager, it was very readily sold for a total of $14.75. Mr.
Kost was invaluable to the committee in charge of arrangements. His contacts with the local organizations and their cooperation contributed greatly to the success of the undertaking.

The St. Vincent DePaul Society wishes to thank all those who contributed sandwiches, cakes and coffee which was served to the two visiting teams and their guests under the very efficient supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wulbecker and Mr. and Mrs. John Matchen.

The large attendance was conclusive evidence that the people of Arlington Heights have the spirit of charity in their hearts. Those present were commended by Mr.
Nelson Hauff and all the other speakers of the evening in turning out and making the evening such a splendid success. The receipts at the door and proceeds of the sale of candy amounted to $95.30, which was divided as follows: 60 per cent to the Local Relief committee and 40 per cent to St. Vincent DePaul society for relief of the needy of St. James Parish, Arlington Heights.

Big Wash Day In
"Orphan Annie"

The law should have been invoked against Director John Robertson during filming of RKO-Radio Pictures "Little Orphan Annie," according to the unanimous opinion of two dozen youngsters in the cast.

Mothers of those same children took a contrary opinion. They voted that Robertson should be given a medal.
The one bad day for the boys and girls came during the sequence in the orphanage, where all were lined up for morning ablutions. Never were faces scrubbed so thoroughly or so frequently. The operation had to be repeated over and over again for all for the long, medium and close shots of the action. By the time the last "take" was made twenty-four little faces were thoroughly scrubbed.

Mitzi Green and May Robson are featured in "Little Orphan Annie," at the Des Plaines Theatre Sunday.
Others in cast are Buster Phelps,
Kate Lawson, and Edgar Kennedy.
The picture is based on Harold Gray's widely-read cartoon strip of the same name.

GUESS WHO IT IS?

Mitzi Green does a Groucho Marx in a comical scene from "LITTLE

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Truth" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 22.

The Golden Text was "I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds" (Psalms 57:9, 10).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth" (III John: 4).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:
"Honesty is spiritual power. Dishonesty is human weakness, which forfeits divine help" (p. 453).

MAKES WOMEN
LOSE FAT

Miss Rea M. Haines of Dayton, Ohio, writes: "I weighed 180 so started to take Kruschen. I never was so surprised as when I weighed myself the first week—I lost 7 pounds. I just bought my 3rd jar and am down to 145 am still taking them and never felt better in my life." (June 17, 1932).

To take off fat—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a few cents—get it at Ferd. B. Wendt or any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and harmless way to lose fat—your money gladly returned.

Don't accept anything but Kruschen because you must reduce safely.

Palatine Defeats Bensenville

Palatine's fighting Pirates nosed the Bensenville High team out of a victory last Friday night 38-33 on the Palatine floor.

Bensenville lead throughout most of the game, but never by a very large margin, the score at half time reading 22-19 in their favor.

Palatine has several reasons to be pleased with the victory but the most important seems to be the fact that two of their forwards were able to "Click" during the game. Blankenship's baskets were largely responsible for the recent victory over Barrington, while Reese sank seven baskets against Arlington a week ago to keep the Arlington team on the run. It was the stellar basket shooting of these two boys assisted by Beckman, Paddock, Haldeman and Eddie Hahnfeldt that sent the Kouzmannoff tribe home with a defeat.

For Bensenville, Kouzmannoff was a team in himself, as he again demonstrated his all around ability by collecting six field goals and an equal number of free tosses for a total of eighteen points. "Lee" Blankenship kept the Palatine crowd cheering as his hook shots came from difficult corner angles dropped in as if he were playing billiards. Several of his seven field goals were the result of well executed follow-in shots. Lee equalized Kouzmannoff's four tossing ability which added six points to bring his total to twenty for the game. Francis Reese proved that his seven baskets against Arlington weren't all luck by sinking four baskets against the Orange clad boys of Bensenville.

Practically two Palatine lightweight teams were used in the first game of the evening which the youthful Pirates won rather easily against the inexperienced Bensenville team. Stokes, Kuhlman, and Helms led the lights scoring attack.

Arlington Gets Two Spankings

Arlington's basketball hopefuls received another double upset last Friday night when Wauconda administered a twin spanking. The lightweights lost a game 25-33 after leading at the half 14 to 7 and apparently having the game in the bag. For a time in the second half Wauconda's lights scored almost at will and ran up the score beyond Arlington's reach.

In the heavyweight game Hironimus was the only player of either team to run his field goals total above one. His three casts from the field and the four points accumulated at the free throw line accounted for ten points. It took all the rest of the Wauconda team to get a like number and enough to win 20-17.

Arlington was unsuccessful in hitting any of their long shots and could only count from the immediate vicinity of the basket. Although getting more tries at the basket than the victors, Arlington got a lower field goal total, and so lost.

LEYDEN WIN FROM ANTIOCH

Antioch was disastrously defeated by the Leyden five last Friday night 44-26 when they ventured upon the floor of the winning team. The second team was also defeated, but by a smaller margin, Leyden scoring 34 points to Antioch's 28.

Leyden took the lead early in the first quarter of the first team game and held Antioch to four points in the first half while they collected 26 markers. Antioch started to do things in the second half, but it was too late to overcome the 22 point lead and Leyden won the contest 44-26.

Steingraber, captain and center of the Leyden quintet, was the high scorer of the game, having dropped the ball through the net nine times for eighteen points. Steffenberg led the point producers of the Antioch five with three baskets and three free throws.

In the second team game Leyden's best basketballers were Amenson, with five baskets, and Williams, with three baskets and two free throws. Steffenberg was the best shooter in this game also, having contributed six baskets and two free tosses.

St. James Parish Teams Win Two

The lightweight team of St. James Parish continued its winning streak last week when it defeated Des Plaines 44 to 12. All of the local team featured in the scoring, L. Brodnan making four baskets; Steve Muran, three; Joe Brodnan, four; Paul Kinder, three; Buddy McKaig, six; Frank Stefanik, one and Toby Stankovich, one. The lightweights hope to win from St. Mary's lightweights on Jan. 25. If they do they will go into a tie with St. Mary's for first place in the lightweight division.

The heavyweight team of St. James Parish finished the first round by beating Deerfield 33 to 24. Deerfield furnished a surprise by leading at the half 15 to 14. Shortly after the beginning of the second half St. James' five launched an attack which proved their superiority as indicated by the final scores. L. Stefanik lead the scoring again with four baskets and two out of three free throws. L. Brodnan, W. Annen and W. McKaig each had three field goals. L. Brodnan made two free throws out of three chances; Annen one out of three and F. Brodnan two out of three. Mary Benic and Joe Urik entered the game during the last few minutes in order to give L. Brodnan and McKaig a rest preparatory to their entering the lightweight game which immediately followed the heavyweight game.

Both teams from St. James Parish are intent on getting somewhere in the Des Plaines Division if at all possible. With the support of a fair sized representation of ardent rooters from Arlington Heights they should be encouraged to go on through the remainder of the play in their division and be up among those at the top when the finals are reached. All the basketball fans of Arlington Heights are again cordially invited to attend the games played at St. Mary's Training School each Wednesday evening at 7:15. The admission is ten cents.

On the evening of February 1, 1933, the following games will be played:
Heavyweights
7:15 St. Mary's vs. Des Plaines.
8:15 Deerfield vs. Niles Center.
9:15 Arlington Heights vs. Lake Forest.
Lightweights
8:15 Lake Forest vs. Arlington Heights.
9:15 Des Plaines vs. St. Mary's.

The Palatine girls handed the visitors a 17-6 defeat in the preliminary game while the men staged a second half rally to win the main event of the evening 41-35. ARLINGTON WINS FROM PALATINE

Heavies Play Thriller of Evening

Playing in two keenly contested games last Tuesday with Palatine, the Arlington Alumni basketball teams added another double header victory to their credit when the lights won handily 30-24 and the heavies forged ahead in the closing minutes of play 40-33. A handsome crowd watched the heavies exchange a see-saw lead with Palatine throughout the game until baskets by Annen, Wahl and Schulenberg gave Arlington the safe margin that the victory hinged on. Excitement ran high during the entire game, Annen getting hot on a number of shots and Wahl opening and closing the game with a good show of basketball. The teams were passing brilliantly and most of the points made were well deserved.

A. Stroker and Buckets were able to keep Palatine in the game with shots from difficult angles that counted.

Lights Gain Early Lead
The lightweights of Arlington gained an early lead in the curtain raiser by working the ball in for shots under the basket and registering. In the third quarter the Arlington substitutes couldn't get going until the latter part of the period, Palatine closing the lead up to the fourth period. Then three of the regulars were reinjected and with the aid of the other two already in the game they managed to keep out of range of Palatine threats.

Next Game Friday, Feb. 3
The Arlington Alumni teams will play their next game on Friday, Feb. 3, on the high school gym floor. The opponents have not been definitely arranged for but posters will announce them early next week.

ON THE ROUNDS

With a Rural Visiting Nurse in Cook County

By DOROTHY ALDIS *

I have never seen soldiers in a front line trench, but that's the phrase that popped into my mind as I went the rounds with one of the Rural Public Health Nurses of Cook County. For certainly these women are waging a magnificent battle against the effects of our present depression. The nurse explained to me as we approached her district that it used to be a community of carpenters and bricklayers—self-respecting, cheerful folk who worked with their hands. Now, of course, it's different.

Let me mention first the three schools we visited that morning. Out of a room of fifty children there would perhaps be five whose fathers had a job; and yet these children are receiving necessary dental care and medical attention. Whole roomfuls are vaccinated and inoculated against diphtheria and, what is very important, an interest in their own health is stimulated by a system of charts which sprout red and blue stars. The red stars stand for physical defects which, when overcome, are planted out by the blue. Ten blue stars in a row ends with a shining gold one.

It is the Rural Nurse who carries out this program of health work, embracing in this particular district, eleven schools with an enrollment of 2400 pupils. She does the physical inspections, and sends notice cards to the parents with recommended corrections, and arranges for clinic work for those without funds, and establishes Infant Welfare Stations, and enrolls the babies in them. (Almost seven hundred in this district.) All this she tosses off with one hand, so to speak, while with the other, she makes home calls—dressing wounds, giving prenatal care, making arrangements for the mental defective to be removed from what is often a circle of normal brothers and sisters.

In fact, I am certain there is no human problem, mental, spiritual or physical that doesn't bob up at some time in

VOICE OF PEOPLE

Railroad Crossing
"Be Careful"

Once more the signalmen of the C. & N. W. Ry. Signal department, through this paper, want to remind the motoring public that they should exercise the utmost caution when approaching and crossing railroad crossings. Especially should all drivers be "Safety First" conscious during these months of wintry and inclement weather, our season of slick and icy pavements.

rain, snow and blizzards, pea soup fogs, steamed car windows and flopping side curtains.

We need only to go back to last week, when a father and his son met with a tragic death, on a grade crossing. What a terrible shock, what sorrow and grief this father and son's family must have suffered.

Drivers, you should and must "Be Careful." Don't be like the yep who said, "If a train ever hits me the railroad will pay me damages." We all remember the old saying, "Dead men tell no tales," well, neither do dead men make good collectors. Damages or not, who ever heard of money buying back a lost parent, son or brother, daughter or sister, your eyesight, leg or arm or even your smallest finger.

Don't take a chance, it isn't worth it.

If you must be picked up in a basket, get in the family wash basin, and have your folks pick you up; it's healthier and everybody will be happy.

Let's make our town and vicinity 100 per cent "Safety." "Be Careful" today and every day. Take heed of the warning that the "Flashers" blink, heed the swinging red light of the "Auto-flag," heed the ringing bell on the crossing and the whistle of the watchman. Heed them all, they are there for your protection. Also do not crash the gates, as it is a good way to keep from growing old.

Practice this motto, "Better a delay, than an accident."

Yours for "Safety,"

A Signalman,
B. R. S. of A.

POULTRY-RAISERS—

Want more eggs?

✓ THIS NEW WATER WARMER HELPS ✓ GET MAXIMUM EGG PRODUCTION

only $2.50 complete

Keeping the poultry house lighted in the early morning and evening during winter months gives hens a long, active day. They eat more feed, drink more water—and lay more eggs.

But hens can't drink frozen water. The benefits of night lighting are lost unless a means of warming their drinking water is provided. We recommend this electric warmer just introduced by the General Electric Company. It is particularly inexpensive and trouble-free. Note these features:

1. It is made of flexible rubber so it can be used in almost any pan without fitting or clamping.

2. A long 10-foot rubber cord plugs it into any electric outlet.

3. It keeps water free of ice crust in containers up to 12-quart capacity.

4. It will not burn out even if the water runs low.

5. It has been carefully tested in the Public Service Company's testing laboratory. Quality is guaranteed.

6. It costs only $2.50 complete, and uses very little current.

FOR A FREE DEMONSTRATION of this electric water warmer, write or phone your nearest Public Service office. One of our representatives familiar with poultry raising problems will call on you and show you how this warmer works. You won't be putting yourself under any obligation. (Other General Electric dealers also carry this equipment.)

Local Man Receives High Scout Honor

Two local scout men were given the Silver Beaver Award for distinguished service to boyhood at the Annual Meeting of the Northwest Suburban Boy Scout Council, Thursday night this week. Scout Commissioner F. O. Proctor of Arlington Heights and W. H. Colman, chairman of the Park Ridge District committee were the recipients of this honor. A. L. Webster of Des Plaines, who was similarly honored last year, made the presentations of the miniature silver beavers suspended upon blue and white ribbon bands. More than two hundred scout leaders, officials and parents witnessed the presentation and enjoyed the interesting program which was held in the community hall of the Des Plaines Congregational church.

Judge McGorty Tells Need of Scouting

A fitting climax was given the program by Judge John P. McGorty of the Superior Court of Cook county as he told those present of the great need for such movements as scouting. "In all of my experience on the bench," he said, "only two boys appeared before me that—tuzoo any sup so saquon araw zation of boys." He then told of the importance of a wholesome community interest in the scout movement and urged a still greater effort on the part of officials and parents that the work might go on unhampered.

Scouting Club Campaign Launched

As an answer to Judge McGorty's challenge for a greater community support to scouting, the Scouting Club, which original plans called the Scouter's Club, was launched with much enthusiasm. The committee consisting of A. R. Crawford of Niles, chairman, J. R. Page, C. C. Gregg, J. P. Fritz, of Park Ridge; E. J. Anderson of Des Plaines and John L. Bell of Barrington, reported with very complete plans for the development of this organization of men that is expected to reach a membership of more than two thousand in the local area. The charter membership campaign which was started at this meeting will close Feb. 15, the end of Scout Anniversary week.

Council Elects Officers

Thomas M. Whitson, of Park Ridge was re-elected president of the council. J. R. Page, Park Ridge; B. L. Franzen, Des Plaines; Dr. Paul Allen, Niles Center; and John L. Bell of Barrington, were elected vice president. Fred I. Gillick, Park Ridge and F. O. Proctor, Arlington Heights were re-elected Representative on the National Council and Scout Commissioner respectively. Clifton W. Goodyear, Des Plaines, was elected treasurer. The rest of the official personnel of the council was retained with few changes.

Report on Year's Activities

The program followed a dinner, entertainment supplied by the Arlington Heights Lion's Club orchestra. Community singing and stunts were under the direction of Field Scout Commissioner E. J. Anderson. Reports were given by the chairman of council committees, Hugh Calkins of Barrington, F. O. Proctor introduced the members of the commissioner staff and reported on troop organization, Bernard Hallberg of Park Ridge told of the various projects that have made possible the 10,000 hours of community service by local scouts, E. E. Friganza of Park Ridge expressed appreciation for the cooperation of local newspapers on the publicity program, F. H. Rehder of Park Ridge told of the progress of the program, H. G. WHEELING NEWS

Miss Elsie Pieper has been confined to her home because of illness the past two weeks.

Mrs. G. Sicks and John Sicks motored to Evanston on Sunday, where they were invited to dinner at the McEvoy home.

Mr. Fred Wolf, Mr. Otto Utpadel and Mr. A. Blumerski were the victims of an auto accident, upon returning from a boxing match they attended in Chicago last Thursday evening. Mr. Wolf, who was driving the car, suffered the worst injury in a fractured knee cap. Mr. O. Utpadel received a cut on the forehead and Mr. Blumerski escaped with minor bruises.

Wheeling Camp R. N. A. held their annual installation of officers last Thursday evening. About 40 members were present to witness the ceremony, which was not a public function this year. The work was done in a most creditable manner by the following members of the camp: Installing officer, Neighbor R. Behrens; ceremonial marshal, Neighbor L. Utpadel; In. chancellor, Neighbor E. Grewe and In. sentinel, Neighbor M. Sessous. The following neighbors were installed as officers for the ensuing term: Orade, Agnes Becker; past orade, Mildred Johnson; vice orade, Mae Ehlers; chancellor, Elsie Ehlers; recorder, Adeline Schneider; receiver, Susan Bellmore; marshal, Lucile Schneider; assistant marshal, Edna Dueball; inner sentinel, Hazel Utpadel; outer sentinel, Myrtle Wesolek; manager, Amanda Vanderwerker; musician, Grace Hoffmann; Faith, Nelda Welflin; Courage, Lydia Wick; Modesty, Evelyn Mohr; unselfishness, Effie Kruse; endurance, Anna Mollenkamp; flag bearer, Marie Schultz.

After the installation ceremonies, special musical entertainment was provided by the sons of three of the neighbors, Donald Welflin, John Barrett and Melvin Becker. Refreshments closed the program for the evening.

Fourteen young people of the Presbyterian church attended a meeting held at Highland Park Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon. About 150 young people representing nine Presbyterian churches of the north district of Chicago Presbytery were present. The meeting opened with a brief devotional service which was conducted by a group of Wheeling young people. This was followed by an address by Dr. Roberts, pastor of the Lake Forest church. Following the address, the conference divided into three discussion groups, each of which discussed a different phase of young people's activities. Refreshments were served at 5:30 after which the question of repeating the experience of the day was raised by Dr. R. H. Elliott. The unanimous opinion was in favor of providing for similar conferences for the future. The presidents of the various clubs were elected the act as a council to plan for future meetings not to exceed two a year. The program closed with the showing of three reels of motion pictures taken by Dr. Sherwin of Highland Park church, one of which was taken in Venice, one at Oxford, England, and one of a group of Highland Park young people on a week-end retreat at Druce Lake last fall. Dr. Sherwin closed the conference with a word of prayer and all of the delegates felt it had been good to be there.

"Smoke these cigars and 500 coupons will get you a banjo," said the salesman.

"You mean a harp, don't you?" said a sarcastic bystander.
